Eden, Ike Differ on Length of Big Four Conference

By the United Press
Eden and Eisenhower tonight agreed on the subject of how long a Big Four Conference should last. Eden said that if he represents Britain he will want ample time for thorough discussions. Last night, Mr. Eisenhower said he does not want to spend more than two or three days at the meeting.

General Benson to Be Honored at Commencement Exercises

Brig. Gen. Otis O. Benson, graduate of MSU in 1924 and present director of medical staffing and education for the Air Force, has been named to receive an honorary doctor of science degree here June 1.

He is being honored at the commencement exercises as one of the nation's leaders in the advancement of aeronautics through medical research.

General Benson received his bachelor's degree in biology in 1924. While at MSU, he participated in interfraternity athletics and played freshman football, was member of Bear Paw, sophomore men's honorary, Interfraternity council, and several scholastic and scientific honoraries. He worked as a student assistant in biology. He served as commander of the SAF School of Aviation Medicine from 1949 to 1953, and during this time was selected to receive the 1951 John Jeffries award from the Institute of Aeronautical Science for outstanding contributions in research.

In 1925, he received his master's degree from the University of Iowa. He was awarded an M.D. degree from the University of Chicago in 1930. He has attended other schools, including the School of Aviation Medicine, the Army Medical School, the Medical Field Service School of tropical and military medicine, the Mayo Clinic, the Fatigue Laboratory of Harvard University, and the Army War College.

He has been prominent in establishing basic developments in

Young Republicans Elect Miss Miller Confab Delegate

Miss Harriet Miller, acting assistant dean of students, has been selected by the Montana Young Republicans club to represent the group at the national convention in Detroit, June 15 through 18.

Miss Miller is national committeewoman of the young Republicans. When asked if the purpose of the convention was to boost Eisenhower for president in '56, she answered, "Yes, I think that's going to be the general theme."

Miss Miller is one of five officials going to the Detroit convention. The other four are Richard Carstensen, Billings; Joe Manzari, Livingston; Edward Gribi, Great Falls, and Elizabeth Harrison, Helena.

Only Manzari and Miss Miller were designated as the official convention delegates.

SDX Gains Five Friday

Five University students in the School of Journalism were initiated Friday night into the University chapter of Sigma Delta Chi, professional journalism fraternity. Two professional Montana journalists were awarded membership into the fraternity.

Student journalists who were initiated include Charles Thompson, Dallas, Tex.; Bill Robson, Long Beach, Calif.; Dave Olstad, Los Angeles, Calif.; Kim Forman, Miles City, and John Bansch, Miles City.

Professional journalists initiated were Ashton Jones, ex-publisher of the Broadus Powder River Examiner, and Homer Murphy, publisher of the Flathead Courier at Polson.

Other professional member journalists who attended were Ross Miller, Montana State University athletic publicity director, and Miles Romney, publisher of the Western News, Hamilton.

Olaf J. Bue, acting dean of the School of Journalism; E. B. Dugan, and W. Ray Wight, University chapter adviser, represented the faculty at the initiation.

Don Dooley, San Francisco, Calif., University chapter president, was in charge of the initiation and the banquet which followed.

Music Honoraries To Perform Today

Mu Phi Epsilon and Phi Mu Alpha Epsilon Sinfonia, national professional music honoraries, will present a student and faculty concert today at 3 p.m. in the music school recital hall. The program is made up of contemporary music in both solo and ensemble groups.

Music on the program includes a concerto for the trumpet and bassoon by Richard Ely, Missoula; Don Hardisty, Butte, and Rudolph Wendt, associate professor in the music school; an organ solo by Nadine Mutch, Fairfield, and a string trio by Eugene Andrie, associate professor; Florence Reynolds, instructor in the music school, and Wendt.

Also on the program is a violin solo by Pamela Brechbill, Missoula, accompanied by Susanne Slavens, Molt, and a brass choir symphony composed of Jack Lind, Polson; Rudy Domitrovich, Anaconda; Glenn Patton, Missoula; William Satterfield, Missoula; Charles Johnson, Missoula; Don Schessler, Laurel; Larry Johnson, Anaconda, and Clair Hallock, Opheim.

Mortar Board Elects Officers, Hears History

New Mortar Board officers were elected at a meeting yesterday noon from the 11 new members tapped last Friday.

Officers elected include vice-president, Terry Fisher, Butte; secretary, Mary Ann Kocar, Hingham; treasurer, Georgia George, Missoula; historian, Sue Slavens, Molt; and editor, Rhea Sherburne, Shelby.

Bobbie Atkinson, Missoula, already elected the new president, will attend the national convention July 1-5 at East Lansing, Mich.

In the past the new officers have been elected by the former members, but this year only the president was elected, leaving the election of the other officers up to the new members.

At the meeting the history of the MSU chapter was read.

"One of the first duties of Penetratia was to mend football uniforms for the varsity team," according to Mrs. Henry Ephron, adviser.

A Spur picnic is planned for this Thursday at 5:15 p.m. All new Spurs and ex-Spurs are invited to meet in front of the Lodge in jeans to leave for Greenough park. Those who can are requested to bring cars. Food and entertainment will be provided.

Fifteen Military Students Receive Awards on Oval

Distinguished military students from the Army and Air Force ROTC detachments received awards at the last review of the year on the MSU oval yesterday afternoon.

Although the weather was somewhat overcast, many people lined the oval to watch the ceremonies. Junior cadets from both forces took over companies and squadrons, while senior cadets and notables made up the reviewing stands.

Cadet Col. Donald L. Chaney, Livingston, received the American Legion medal, awarded by Mrs. Ann Jones, president of the American Legion Ladies auxiliary, for the outstanding all-around second year advanced AFROTC cadet, first place. For placing second, cadet Col. George D. Boifeuillet, Missoula, was presented with the Chicago Tribune gold medal, by Pres. Carl McFarland.

The outstanding first year advanced cadet in speech and leadership award went to Cadet 2nd Lt. Roy W. Hammer, Stanford. He was presented a Republic Aviation silver identification bracelet by Lt. Gen. Frank W. Milburn, ROTC coordinator.

A ConVair F-102 model aircraft went to Cadet Arthur L. Dahlberg, Butte, outstanding all-around second year basic AFROTC cadet, selected for the advance course in a category leading to flying training. This award was presented by Lt. Col. C. V. McCauley, professor of air science at MSU.

McFarland Presents Medals

Cadet Charles P. Fox, Hardin, was given the Chicago Tribune silver medal for the outstanding all-around second year basic AFROTC cadet, by President McFarland. Another Chicago Tribune silver medal was awarded to Cadet Donald W. Nelson, Jr., outstanding all-around first year basic AFROTC cadet, presented by President McFarland.

An AFROTC ribbon was awarded to Cadet Robert N. Thornton, Lewistown, named as the outstanding all-around band cadet. The president also awarded this ribbon.

Gen. Milburn presented AFROTC ribbons to Cadet Donald C. Beal, Anaconda, and Cadet Ronald L. Hall, Missoula, as the best drilled second and first year basic cadets respectively.

The outstanding all-around second year advanced Army ROTC cadet was Cadet Lt. Col. John J. Gilliam, Lincoln. His medal, awarded by the Association of the United States Army, was presented by General Milburn.

Ryan Scores

Cadet Lt. Col. James W. Ryan, Seattle, Wash., named as the outstanding second year cadet, academically, was awarded the Montana Department of the Reserve Officers Association's medal by Col. John W. Bonner, former governor of Montana and now president of the association.

The all-around outstanding first year advanced cadet medal awarded by the American Legion, was presented to Cadet M/Sgt. Ray H. Lee, Butte, by Dr. George W. Mallik, post commander of Hellgate post No. 27. Lee was also awarded the DAR medal as the outstanding first year advanced Army cadet, academically, by Mrs. R. E. Lemire, president of the Missoula chapter of the DAR.

Marksman Honored

The Missoula Mercantile silver cup for the outstanding Army rifle marksman, was given to Cadet PFC John R. Foster, Springfield, Ohio, by L. A. Colby, public relations manager of the Mercantile. Foster also won the medal given by the DAR for the outstanding rifle marksman, presented by Mrs. Lemire.

Mrs. Lemire presented Cadet PFC Edwin H. Foote, Middlebury, Va., with a DAR medal for being the Army rifleman showing the greatest progress.

Cadet Sgt. Rae F. Young, Billings, received a ribbon sponsored by the military department as the outstanding all-around second year basic cadet.

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS BY DICK BIBLER

Elijah, a Publicity Gold Mine, Passed Unsung By Students

An ex-forward on one of Minnesota's Madison Square Garden basketball teams last summer lamented the offerings he had ignored as an undergraduate in the land of sky blue waters.

He told us that he, Johnny Kundla, now coach of the Lakers, and their teammates, missed most of the stage shows, jazz concerts, and big names. He regretted that his college stint hadn't been as profitable as it might have been.

We thought of his complaints as we walked from the Field House Sunday night. In early January the 1,634 seats in the student section of the Field House were filled for the Helena Booster game between the Grizzlies and Colorado A and M.

Townpeople Outnumbered Students . . .

Sunday only 696 attended the performance of Mendelssohn's Elijah—a heavy majority were townpeople.

The MSU choir began practice on Elijah at the start of spring quarter—Choral Union began winter quarter. Approximately 7,000 man-hours of work went into the performance. It showed it. Elijah's vitality and power rolling through the Field House were enough to lift you off the chair, to send chills up your back.

If Elijah could be sent on a state tour it would rank with Interscholastic as an MSU publicity tool. Elijah and student productions of its caliber are one of the distinct differences between Montana State college and Montana State University. It is one facet of MSU life that can be honestly praised—but isn't.

. . . as Part of MSU "Complex"

We don't contend that athletics are over-emphasized but that other student activities are under-emphasized.

Someday we'd like to see the 1,634 student seats filled for a performance of the Elijah. If you missed it Sunday you may be sorry 10 years from now, like our Minnesota ball player.

COMMITTEE APPLICATIONS PROMPT JYSTAD COMMENTS

To the students of MSU:

The applications for the ASMSU committees are now available in the respective living groups and the Lodge. The deadline for these applications is Friday, May 27, at which time they may be brought to the ASMSU office. They will also be collected from the living groups.

I sincerely hope that every student will seriously consider applying for a position in some phase of student government.

An education is a vital part of our lives, but it is not only found in the classroom. One's ability to meet, work, and associate with other people is of vital importance. A position on one of the various ASMSU committees, no matter how large or small, will give you a chance to broaden and enhance your college education.

Experience will not be the only criterion on which the committees will be selected; therefore, if you have not previously been active in student government, do not let this be the basic for holding back.

Remember, the strength of our government depends upon the interest or disinterest of the student body.

Sincerely yours,
Gary Jystad,
President, ASMSU.

Cossette's Curves Up Montana, 3-1

Montana batters couldn't hit the curves of Gonzaga freshman Cossette Friday as the Grizzlies posted a 3-1 non-conference game over Spokane invaders at Camp-Park.

The second game of a scheduled doubleheader was washed out by rain in the third inning Friday.

Cossette pitched Montana only three hits. The Grizzlies bunched four of them in the seventh for only one run. Captain Clinton and Bob Hendricks both had singles, and Humble scored on a Gonzaga catcher Keith Gustafson's error. The Grizzlies threw low to third base in an attempt to foil a double steal.

Gonzaga scored its two winning runs in the fourth. With two out, Humble muffed Gordon Brunette's spring fly into center field. Jessen lined a single into right field, and then Cossette dropped a lead runner into left field to get both men home.

Box score:

Grizzlies 'n Sports

When WRA awards are handed Wednesday evening, Nan Haines will take the women's minton singles trophy and be in the doubles award. She won the singles championship in tournament finals yesterday, taking a 11-6, 11-8 decision over Pat Kennedy. Saturday she teamed with Miss Kennedy to win the doubles crown. Janet Rickert-Ann Taylor 2, 15-4, for the doubles crown. Miss Haines was matched against Buterbaugh in the first round of the singles tournament, winning both games 11-0. Ruthker was her next opponent, and won with 11-1 and 11-2 scores. Kennedy advanced into the finals by defeating Verna Johns (feit), Thea Williams 11-3, 4, and Ann Taylor 11-0, 11-3. Only four teams entered the doubles tournament, with the Haines-Kennedy duo topping Buterbaugh-Williams and the Rickert-Taylor combination winning from Dale-Shirlee Moran, to advance into the finals.

MAJOR LEAGUE SCORES

One of the greatest hitters in baseball, Ted Williams, made his appearance in the Boston Red Sox lineup this year and blasted a towering home run as the Red Sox won the New York Giants 4-3 in an exhibition game last night. The Chicago White Sox and the Milwaukee Braves battled to a 10-7 deadlock in an exhibition game called at the consent of each team. Regular play resumes today.

Brant Bests Mark But Mates Falter In Western Meet

Montana trackmen, despite a record-breaking performance by captain Don Brant in the 220, and another win by Brant in the 100, picked up points in only six events as BYU captured the Western division championship in Logan, Utah, Saturday with 70.9 points.

Utah followed with 43.5 points, Utah State tallied 27.4, and Montana trailed with 22.5.

Brant bettered his own Western division mark by running the 220 in 20.9 seconds, and scored a 9.7 century win.

Russ Sheriff captured the discus throw with a 144-foot heave, and Tom Roe took second in the high jump. Montana gathered the rest of its points on Ron Lundquist's fourth place in the javelin, and Jim Black's tie for second in the shot put.

Grizzlies will travel to Salt Lake City Wednesday for the Skyline trials and championship Friday and Saturday.

Coach Harry Adams said he would probably take the same team he took to Logan, with the exception of Jim Rowland, who pulled a leg muscle while running the relay for Montana.

Lloyd Boozer also hurt a leg while pole vaulting, but Adams said Boozer may be ready to go by Friday.

Jumbolaya Grabs Fifth Sports Crown

Jumbolaya trackmen rolled up 75 points Saturday to walk away with the intramural trackmeet. The win, Jumbolaya's fifth IM championship of the year, virtually clinched a second all-sports crown for the winners.

Freshman Bill Beauleau scored 18½ points for Jumbolaya to emerge as the meet's high-point man. Phi Delta Theta scored 26, Sigma Alpha Epsilon 12, Alpha Tau Omega 8, Sigma Chi 3 and Sigma Nu 1.

IM director Ed Chinske said after the meet that he was disappointed with the showing of the fraternity teams. "They enter 15 men, but only three or four show up. And that has hurt the meet."

Results of the meet:
100-yard dash—Paige (PDT), Bork (JUM), Pearson (SN), 11.5.
220-yard dash—Shupe (JUM), Paige (PDT), Bork (JUM), 24.5.
440-yard dash—Sullivan (JUM), Shupe (JUM), Squire (JUM), 55.1.

Jacoby, Pangle's 92s Win Medalist On Polson Links

Sonowea's three-man golf team captured the intramural golf tournament at Polson Saturday with an aggregate score of 288.

Lew Pangle, PDT, and Chuck Jacoby, SX, shot 92s to tie for medalist honors. The results:

Sonowea (288)—Ronald 100, Casegrande 93, McGregor 95.
SX (296)—Todd 103, Lawton 101, Jacoby 92.
PDT (298)—Larcombe 104, Banks 102, Pangle 92.

Society

Scholarship dinners, guests, and officers are included in last week's society overflow.

The Alpha Phis had their annual steak and bean dinner Monday night. The scholarship dinner of Delta Delta Delta was held last Monday. Mary Jo Burns, Missoula, received the scholarship award.

Two former houseboys of KKG, Michael Sullivan, and Vince Barry, both of Butte, were recent dinner guests at the Kappa house.

Wednesday night the Tri Deltas had a picnic with the Phi Deltas and the APs had a picnic with the TXs.

Dinner guests at the Sigma Chi house last week included Susan Hodges, Great Falls, and Bernice Schutrop, KKG, Billings.

Prof. John F. Suchy was a dinner guest at the TX house last Sunday.

House Guests

Brooke Possenti, Havre, a student at MSC, was a recent guest at the Alpha Phi house.

Dennis Zimmerman, Pullman, Wash., visited at the Theta Chi house last week.

Norman Hermes, ATO, ex-'57, was a recent visitor at the ATO house.

New Officers

New officers of Sigma Kappa are Darlene Spek, Melstone, rush chairman, and Judy Weaver, Red Lodge, recording secretary.

Attend Convention

Jack Driscoll, Spokane; Dan Zenk, Tampico; Vern Hill, Hamilton; Charles Mattison, Lewistown, and Don Wall, Belgrade, attended the Sigma Chi convention held recently in Helena.

The sophomore classes of KAT and SN took a successful sneak Monday night.

Carillon Plaques Installed in Main Hall Alcove

The maintenance department is putting up 47 plaques in the alcove of the Main hall steps to commemorate "for whom the bells toll" in MSU's memorial carillon tower.

The memorial carillon was dedicated Oct. 18, 1953, but the plaques have just been finished this year. Each of the 47 bells was donated by different groups of people or individuals in memoriam.

Alumni Donation

Bell No. 1 was donated by the Alumni association and "dedicated to all those former students of the University who have given their lives in defense of their country." The Associated students presented the No. 2 bell to sound the student spirit and tradition.

Hans C. Hansen '21, Ella H. Hansen '23, Hans Richard Hansen '53, and Nancy J. Hansen presented bell No. 6 in memory of their son and brother, Robert Hansen, ex-'46, who died in 1945 defending his country.

The 18th bell was presented by William O. Cogswell '23, Edward B. Cogswell and Andrew C. Cogswell '27, in honor of their father, Dr. William F. Cogswell, pioneer secretary of the State Board of Health 1912-1946.

Money for the Music bell was given by H. Lowndes Maury and William J. Fox in "recognition of the contributions of the faculty and students of the Music school to the culture of Montana."

The MSU faculty presented a Faculty bell, No. 37, "for all those who uphold the dignity of thought and learning."

Largest Plaque

These are but a few of the plaques that are being installed. But the largest one is not for a specific bell.

Gladys Phillips Bennett '20 and Irvine Bennett have presented to the University a plaque containing the names of 154 former students who gave their lives for their country in World War II. The plaque was presented in memory of their son, John Linden Bennett, who died in Korea.

Fulbright Awarded James L. C. Ford Jr.

James L. C. Ford Jr., a senior majoring in math-physics, has been selected for a Fulbright scholarship to study physics in Scotland at the University of Glasgow, according to Dr. Gordon B. Castle, dean of the MSU graduate school.

Ford has also been offered a research assistantship in physics and astronomy at the California Institute of Technology, Pasadena, Calif. Dean Castle said Ford has indicated he may turn down the Fulbright scholarship and accept the CIT assistantship.

He is a member of Phi Kappa Phi, national student-faculty honor society, president of Phi Mu Epsilon, national mathematics honorary; and a past member of Bear Paw.

This Fulbright offer boosts MSU's total to four this year. The other three that have been invited to study abroad are Judy McCullough and Catherine Doherty, Missoula, and Russell Pfohl, Deer Lodge.

WRA Honors Seniors At Cook-Out Breakfast

Graduating women physical education majors will be honored Wednesday at a cook-out breakfast at 6 a.m. and a fried-chicken banquet that evening.

The seniors will again be honored that evening at the Women's Recreation association spring awards banquet held in the Women's Center basement. Trophies will be presented to various winners in team and individual sport tournaments held during the year. The traveling intramural trophy will be awarded to the women's living group that has collected the most points in competition this year.

Darlene Spek will be installed as WRA president at this time, with Shirlee Moran, vice-president; Pat Kennedy, secretary; Pris Herget, treasurer; and Kay Calvin, general manager also presented to the group. The new WRA board, including sports managers and campus representatives will be announced. Retiring WRA adviser, Mrs. Betty Faurot, will also be honored by the organizations.

MSU NETMEN SUCCUMB TO AIR BASE COURTMEN

The Great Falls air base tennis team Saturday avenged an earlier defeat by stroking to a 4-3 win over MSU's five-man team.

Among the Great Falls winners was Lt. Bill Jones, 1954 Silver-tip squad member, who sliced out a 6-3, 6-2 victory over Len Peklewsky. The results:

Bob McDole def. Jim Ryan (M), 6-1, 6-4.

Charles Payne def. Stuart Gallagher (M), 6-2, 3-6, 6-4.

John Powell (M), def. Herb Schindler, 6-0, 7-5.

Jim Andrews (M) def. Drake DeLanoy, 2-6, 6-0, 6-3.

GI Checks to Cover May-June Pay Period

Veterans attending school under GI bills will receive subsistence checks on June 20 for the period between May 1 and June 10, Mrs. Emma Lommasson, assistant registrar, announced today.

Because of a ruling by the Veterans Administration it will not be necessary to fill out two applications, said Mrs. Lommasson.

The veterans are requested to fill out the form for their check just before they leave for summer vacation. There will be a space available on the form for a change of address. This will allow the veteran to have the check sent to his home address or wherever he might be during the summer.

The checks should reach the applicant shortly after June 20, said Mrs. Lommasson.

SUMMER REGISTRATION TO BEGIN MAY 31

Students may pick up summer school registration materials in Registrar's office May 31.

Students planning to attend Summer session should begin make appointments with their advisors. This will enable them arrange their schedules and see the signatures of advisers before the registration date, June 13.

All checking, billing, and ing of fees will be done Monday, June 13.
